

Professional Profile

Prof. Sanjoy Kumar Pal, Ph.D., Dip. (Naturopathy)

A dynamic professional with over 25 years of rich experience in teaching, training, mentoring, research & development, content editing, and general administration in India, Ethiopia, and Nigeria. Dr. Sanjoy holds a Ph.D. from the Indian Veterinary Research Institute and completed his post-doctoral studies at the Indian Institute of Toxicological Research and the Sanjay Gandhi Postgraduate Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow. Dr. Sanjoy has authored over 85 research publications in international journals and more than 100 research abstracts. His research on alternative cancer treatments attracted the attention of the Office of Cancer Complementary & Alternative Medicine (OCCAM) at the National Cancer Institute, Bethesda, USA. Additionally, his work on cancer was published in high-impact journals like Lancet Oncology. Dr. Sanjoy has core competencies in genetics, molecular biology, biotechnology, proteomics, and alternative & naturopathic medicine. He also has over 4 years of industry experience and expertise in conducting clinical trials. He has initiated several projects, including methodology planning for clinical trials and designing experiments related to testing drugs sourced from herbal sources. Dr. Sanjoy has worked at various universities, including Haramaya University, Ethiopia; RNB Global University, Bikaner; CT University, Ludhiana; SBS University, Dehradun; and Skyline University, Nigeria. He has received numerous scholarships and fellowships, including the prestigious 'Lady Tata Memorial Trust Fellowship.' For the past several years, Dr. Sanjoy has been researching various natural therapies for cancer treatment. His hobbies include reading, traveling, and astrology.